

Given the demonstrated inability of most power companies to properly maintain their lines to minimize the generation and radiation of radio frequency interference, allowing them to deliberately generate and transmit radio frequency energy over their lines is the height of folly! The potential for disruption of high frequency communications is enormous. Please do not allow this madness!